

Meet the author

A former high school and middle school Social Studies, English and ESL teacher, Jennifer Bohnhoff is the author of numerous historical fiction and contemporary novels. She has presented online and in person in schools, to adult groups, and at Social Studies and ESL Teacher's Conferences. She uses visuals, interaction and lively details to make history and literature come alive for students and adults.

historical fiction for middle school and adult readers

Bring Jennifer to your classroom, library, or meeting

Jennifer Bohnhoff is available to speak to classes online and in person. She is willing to speak at libraries, museums, teacher's conferences and for adult organizations.

Contact:

Jennifer Bohnhoff
P.O. Box 2
Sandia Park, NM 87047

Phone: (505) 281-1534

Email: jennifer@jenniferbohnhoff.com

website: www.jenniferbohnhoff.com

Teachers: ask about teacher's guides.

About Jennifer's Presentations

Jennifer Bohnhoff is a valuable teacher's resource...a hidden gem, a natural storyteller. She made history come alive for my class with short vignettes about New Mexico's part in the Civil War helping the 21st century learner connect to the past in a lively, understandable and engaging format. Merita Wilson - St. Mary's Catholic School, Belen historical fiction for middle school and adult readers.

Jennifer Bohnhoff

Presentations

and Class Visits

Presentations for Middle Grade Readers and Writers

The Civil War in New Mexico

Many people don't realize there were Civil War battles in New Mexico. Students will learn why the Confederates invaded the territory, who the key figures were, and some interesting facts about why the battles are significant.

Presentation:
1 hour
fee:
$250 in person
$100 online
or by arrangement

Be a Story Sleuth

A 9 session online writer's seminar that will help students understand the elements of fiction and develop and polish their own stories. Students who complete the homework will be included in a class anthology.

Presentation:
9 40 minute sessions plus homework
fee:
$540 online
or by arrangement

Interested in her other books?
Jennifer can develop a presentation just for your group or interests.

Presentations for Adult Groups

The Punitive Expedition and New Mexico's Part in WWI

The expedition to capture Pancho Villa after he attacked the town of Columbus, New Mexico prepared the United States for its roll in World War I. Learn about technological innovations and why Black Jack Pershing insisted on putting New Mexico's National Guard into action in France.

Beowulf: Echoes throughout Time

The monk who first wrote down this Old English epic added his own moral spin to a pre-Christian story. But might it have been written about an even earlier time?

Presentations: 1 hour
fee: $250 in person or by arrangement